The Morristown-based commercial mortgage banking firm said Jan. 25 it committed $267,000,000 with one of their exclusive correspondent life company lenders, Thrivent Financial.

Two of the loans were for multi-family properties in northern New Jersey for $103,000,000 and $60,000,000, respectively. The firm also arranged $86,000,000 in loans for four industrial properties in northern New Jersey and an $18,000,000 loan for a retail center in Long Island, New York.

“Despite the challenges we faced in 2020, we continue to meet our clients’ objectives by arranging the best financing for their projects. We are proud to serve as a correspondent for Thrivent Financial in our market, and look forward to continuing this partnership,” said Founder Gretchen Wilcox in a prepared statement.
